Today is Trinity Sunday

The Trinity is the mystery of one God in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The revealed truth of the Holy Trinity is at the very root of the Church's living faith as expressed in the Creed. How the Lord can be one God in three distinct persons is completely beyond the ability of any human to understand. By the power of the Holy Spirit, Christians accept this incomprehensible mystery as a fundamental article of faith.

"The mystery of the Trinity in itself is inaccessible to the human mind, and is the object of faith only because it was revealed by Jesus Christ, the Divine Son of the Eternal Father."
 - Catechism of the Catholic Church

SUNDAY MASS OBLIGATION NO LONGER SUSPENDED

On March 13, 2022, Archbishop, Cardinal, Collins granted the Faithful dispensation from their Sunday obligation due to COVID 19 restrictions.

As of June 1, 2022, the Archbishop has returned the Church to its normal obligation of attending Sunday Mass. The Vicar General, Fr Edward Curtis, on behalf of the Archbishop wrote, "Given that most of the health and safety restrictions in our parishes are no longer in place and the Faithful are able to attend the celebration of the Eucharist once again, the basis for the dispensation from the Sunday obligation has dissipated and is no longer in effect."

However he continued, "The Church does not obligate people to do the impossible. If individuals, based on their conscience, cannot attend Mass for a grave reason, including a great vulnerability to COVID-19 or because they are self-isolating to limit the spread of illness, then they are excused from their Sunday obligation, as the law of the Church allows".

Fr Curtis concludes, "After two years of COVID-19 restrictions, many have been deprived of the opportunity to attend Mass and to receive the most Holy Eucharist and all of us have missed the opportunity to experience community, including members of our parishes. As we come to the celebration of [The Most Holy Trinity] this weekend, we invite and encourage the Faithful to return to the practice of attending Mass in-person".

Catholic Bishops Welcome Announcement of Dates and Hub Cities for Papal Visit to Canada

On May 13, 2022, Vatican formally announced that Pope Francis will travel to Canada from July 24-29, 2022. The historic visit, focused on Indigenous healing and reconciliation, will be the fourth papal journey to Canada and the first since Saint John Paul II's visit in 2002.

Bishop Raymond Poisson, President of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCCB) welcomed the formal confirmation of the visit on behalf of Canada's Catholic Bishops: "We are immensely grateful that the Holy Father has accepted our invitation to continue the journey of healing and reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples of this land. In late July, Pope Francis will have the opportunity to visit Indigenous Peoples here in their homeland, as he promised when he met them recently in Rome. We pray for the health of the Holy Father as we undertake the intensive planning for this historic visit."

On April 1, 2022, Pope Francis apologized for the Catholic Church's role in Canada's residential school system. The Holy Father expressed "sorrow and shame" for the abuse and lack of respect for Indigenous identities, culture and spiritual values in the residential school system.
