SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading

1 Kings 19:16b,19-21

Elijah anoints Elisha as his successor.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 16:1-2,5,7-11

I set the Lord ever before me.

Second Reading

Galatians 5:1,13-18

Christ has set us free.

Gospel Reading

Luke 9:51-62

Jesus resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem.

July 1 is celebrated as Canada's birthday. Canadians should seek to be witnesses to Christ in Canada and the world, and to continue working to influence those in government to act from Christian principles and attitudes. Realizing that we do not have a lasting home here, we should pray and work for justice and peace in Canada and throughout the world, so that all God's people may share in the goods of this earth. God's kingdom will come only when all people are ready to let Christ's teaching guide and rule their lives and actions."

Let us mark this day by prayer for our country and our leaders, and by taking a few moments to give serious consideration to our responsibilities as citizens; we should consider what we are doing for peace in Canada and in the world.

As God's people gathered in this parish, let us make sure that the spiritual aspects of this day's celebration are given their proper place and not lost in the holiday.

Friday, July 1 is Canada Day, a public holiday.

Mass will be at 9AM

with confessions from 8:30AM to 8:50PM.

Novena to the Sacred Heart to be done at 8:45AM.

There will be no First Friday Adoration.

Office will be closed on Friday.

"Your commitment to love and care for the youth experiencing homelessness and trafficking who come to Covenant House truly means so much," says the agency's director. "Your support gives hope to young people who need hope right now – and you give youth a real chance for a better future."

Toronto's Largest Permanent Diaconate Ordination in Years a Testament to the Service of All Deacons

On June 18, 2022, 20 men were ordained permanent deacons in service to the Archdiocese of Toronto. Cardinal Thomas Collins, Archbishop of Toronto presided over the Ordination ceremony.

Permanent deacons serve the Church by assisting the archbishop and priests of the diocese. Their roles are to be focused on charitable work in the community, as well as ministering in parishes and schools, including serving directly at the altar - they have the liturgical authority to baptize children, witness marriages and preside at funerals.

In 1967, following the Second Vatican Council, the Roman Catholic Church reintroduced the permanent diaconate program. Unlike transitional deacons, permanent deacons are not studying to become priests - once ordained, they remain deacons for the rest of their lives. Since 1972, St. Augustine's Seminary in Scarborough has provided the formation program for 315 diaconal candidates and their wives who are serving in the Archdiocese of Toronto. Nearly 150 deacons are currently in active ministry. The program involves one year of prayer and discernment and four years of formation and theological study.
