September 27: Feast of St Vincent de Paul

Vincent de Paul was a priest of the Catholic Church who dedicated himself to serving the poor. De Paul was renowned for his compassion, humility and generosity and is known as the "Great Apostle of Charity".

Vincent started the Order of the Daughters of Charity who worked for the poor and sick. He built homes for the needy, sick, aged and abandoned children. He also started the Congregation of the Mission, a society of priests, and missionaries called the Vincentians.
