Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

The readings for Corpus Christi Year A focus on the Eucharist. We are reminded that God cared for the Israelites by providing manna. By receiving Holy Communion, we are spiritually fed and united in each other. And in the Gospel of John, Jesus makes it clear that the Eucharist is truly His body and blood, and gives us life.

Remembering God's blessings: In the first reading, Deuteronomy 8:2-3,14b-16a, the Israelites are reminded to remember how God led them through the wilderness and provided for them. This is a warning against forgetting God's goodness and becoming prideful in our own abilities and possessions. We are called to recognize that all that we have comes from God, and we must be grateful for His provision.

Trusting in God's word: The passage from Deuteronomy also emphasizes the importance of trusting in God's word rather than material things. This is a call to focus on the spiritual rather than the material, recognizing that our true sustenance comes from God's word. We must rely on God and His promises, rather than placing our trust in material things that will ultimately fade away.

The Eucharist as a sacrament of unity: The second reading, 1 Corinthians 10:16-17 describes the Eucharist as a sacrament that creates a spiritual unity among believers. Through partaking in the bread and wine that represent the body and blood of Christ, we become united as one body of Christ. This is a reminder of the importance of community and the role that the Eucharist plays in creating a sense of belonging among believers.

The true presence of Christ in the Eucharist: The belief in the true presence of Christ in the bread and wine of the Eucharist is a central teaching of the Catholic Church. The second reading emphasizes that the bread and wine are not merely symbols, but are the body and blood of Christ. This belief is foundational to the Catholic faith, and is a reminder of the depth of Christ's sacrifice for us.

The necessity of the Eucharist for eternal life: The Gospel reading from John emphasizes the necessity of consuming the body and blood of Christ for eternal life. Jesus teaches that His flesh and blood are true food and true drink, and those who eat and drink them will abide in Him and have eternal life. This is a reminder of the centrality of the Eucharist to the Catholic faith, and the importance of receiving the sacrament for our spiritual nourishment and growth. (young-catholics.com)

HOLY HOUR
IN HONOUR
THE MOST HOLY BODY
& BLOOD OF CHRIST
(CORPUS CRISTI)

This Sunday is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ. To honour our Saviour, in His Eucharistic Presence to us, we will have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament for an hour and conclude with Benediction at the end of the hour.

Come on out and spend 10 mins, 20 mins or the whole hour with the Lord. Come with your family and let His Peace sink into your hearts. Speak to Him in the silence and let Him speak to you in the silence. Or, as one holy individual responded when asked what he does in a holy hour:

"I look at the Lord, and he looks at me".

Suffering is inescapable. The catechism cautions that our experience of suffering can "shake our faith." Many saints however, view suffering as a gift. This talk will provide practical ways of making suffering beneficial to our lives. Please bring a notepad and a pen. Join us as we hear from Dwayne Santos, Campus Minister at CCY on Wednesday, June 14th at 7pm, held at The Epiphany of Our Lord Parish (3200 Pharmacy Ave). See you there and bring a friend!
